

PC Administrator

Creation date : 2014-06-17

- To install the software which can be installed by using our service on university-owned PC, to clearly define who is responsible for each university-owned PC where software is installed, a person for managing the computer, PC Administrator, is required.
If you want to know eligible to become PC Administrator, see this page.
- A PC Administrator who was appointed to install the software which was installed by using our service on the university-owned PC is responsible for ensuring that the software is installed on the PC only using the proper procedure.
In the course of the administrative work, a PC Administrator who was appointed to install the software which was installed by using our service on the university-owned PC is allowed to assign the installing to other people (limited to Tokyo Tech IC card holders only).
- A PC Administrator who was appointed to install the software which was installed by using our service on the university-owned PC is responsible for uninstalling the software installed when the PC is not eligible for our services.
- A PC Administrator who was appointed to install the software which was installed by using our service on the university-owned PC have to inform users about about the proper usage of the software installed on the PC.